

PERMANENT FULL-TIME ZERO WASTE COORDINATOR

(Competition 23-121)

Position Overview

The City of Nanaimo is seeking a permanent full-time Zero Waste Coordinator. Reporting to the Manager, Sanitation, Recycling & Cemeteries, the incumbent will be responsible for the planning, development, design, education, delivery, administration, and coordination of waste reduction policies and programs that will push the City's residual waste rate closer to zero. The incumbent will utilize a variety of primary data sources in conjunction with Federal and Provincial Environmental guidelines, the Regional District of Nanaimo's Solid Waste Management Plan and the latest best practice to bring about productive changes.

Working with a variety of stakeholders, including internal staff, outside organizations, and residents, and Regional District staff in order to align goals, objectives and plans, the Zero Waste Coordinator will tackle barriers to zero waste in the community.

Qualifications

Applicants must have a diploma in Environmental Science or related discipline and a minimum of one year experience with environmental program development, public outreach and consultation. An equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered. A valid Class 5 BC Driver's Licence is required.
